

December 2010 Starlight

December 3, 2010

From the East

Sisters and Brothers, Christmas is a special time. A time to spend with our families and friends and to share gifts with love ones and those who are unfortunate. But, it is also time to wish Jesus Happy Birthday and to thank God for his son.

November Meeting & Notes

We are happy to welcome Andrea Stoery. She was initiated at our November meeting. Kenneth Gregory gave a program about Veterans at our Thanksgiving cover-dish supper. I would like to say thank you to our wonderful pro-tems, for without you we would be lost.

Upcoming Events

We will have a fun night at our Dec. meeting.

On Dec. 19th we will be Christmas Caroling our shut-ins. We will meet at 2:00. After Caroling, those who are able will join for a meal and fellowship. Meeting place will be determined at our December meeting.

Adopted Family

We have adopted a fourth grade boy named Julio. He attends Sanchez Elementary. He has 3 siblings that we are going to be helping. I know this is short notice. But I ask for your support in helping this family have a Merry Christmas. If you can please bring toys or cash for this family. Ann and I will use the cash to buy gifts for this family. Here is a list of the 4 brothers and want they would like.

Sickness and Distress

Bernadine Watson still needs our prayers.

Karen Gregory's father-in-law, Pops Adams is having issues with staph on his wrists.

MWGP- Fred Clark is fighting Cancer in both lungs and his liver.

Fred Hite was informed he might have cancer. After a biopsy he was told there was no cancer found. But the dr. took the biopsy of the wrong area in his lungs. Fred has decided not to pursue the issue because he decided not to have any type of treatment.

Randy Martin is still having health issues that he is trying to resolve (Ha! Ha!).

Please keep these members in your prayers.

Cheer

Patty and Sammy Peach are home from vacation. Patty and Sammy went to Las Vegas for about a week. Fred and Barbara Hite, Cindy and Dan Barber are in New Orleans visiting Damara. They will be home by our meeting.

Congratulations to Andrea Stoerey. Her big sister is Susan Martin.
